

FOOD SAFETY & QUALITY POLICY

Origen Fresh EPZ Limited is dedicated to ensuring production and distribution of safe Refined Avocado Oil products of the highest quality that not only align with the customer expectations but also adhere to the regulatory and health requirements. To achieve this, we commit to undertake the following initiatives:

- Establish and implement a food safety management system in accordance with the requirements outlined in FSSC 22000 V6 with the goal to produce and supply end products that are not only safe but also meet the quality expectations and requirements of our valued customers.
- Adhere to all relevant legal and regulatory requirements as well as all the requirements agreed upon with our customers.
- Employee competences and training – To continuously improve the competency of employees, to encourage their involvement in the improvement of their performance, the realization of their talents and their self-expression, to develop their awareness and responsibility for Food Safety and Quality.
- Food Safety and Quality Culture – to implement a culture of Food Safety and Quality throughout the food supply chain by raising awareness among employees of the importance of food safety and hygiene and the risks of food safety. To identify and inform employees in all areas of their roles and responsibilities for food safety and quality and ensure effectiveness, communication between employees in the company at all areas and levels, including communication of deviations, suggestions for improvement.
- Maintenance and continuous improvement – To continuously improve the food safety and quality culture and the food safety management system. To improve its effectiveness by analyzing results and taking care of customer's expectations and feedback.
- The senior management at The Origen Fresh EPZ Limited is unwavering in its commitment to consistently allocate the necessary resources to ensure the production of high quality and safe products.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Grace Kariuki", written over a horizontal line.

MS. GRACE KARIUKI
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER